

Expressive skills and attributes

I am able to discuss the importance of using the appropriate expressive skills to communicate the choreographic intent
--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Mental skills and attributes

I am able to identify the mental skills and attributes used during the process of creating a performance piece
I am able to identify the mental skills and attributes used during the process of creating a performance piece
I am able to compare the difference mental skills and attributes used during the process of creating a piece and the actual performance

Safe working practices

I am able to justify the importance of safe working practices used during the process of creating a dance
I am able to justify the importance of safe working practices used during the performance of a dance

Review of previous examinations: