

Home and School Partnership Agreement

By joining our school community, we expect all students to support our ethos and expectations which are outlined below. By working together, we know that we can support your achievements at Blenheim High School.

We aim for all of our students to be positive about their ability and strive to reach their potential. Together we will excel in all we do, enjoy challenges, celebrate success, welcome opportunities and respect each other.

By signing this agreement, we are committing to:

- Developing our students into happy, successful and fulfilled young people;
- Upholding our ethos in all activities both within the formal curriculum and extra-curricular activities;
- Providing the best teaching and learning opportunities possible which recognise and celebrate all achievements;
- Providing a safe and caring environment where individual talent can be celebrated. Blenheim adheres to all safeguarding and equality legislation and guidance. (Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy on website or from Reception);
- Listening to and responding to the needs and concerns of students and parents;
- Keeping parents and carers informed and involved in their child's progress and attainment;
- Providing high expectations in terms of achievement, behaviour and appearance.

As a Student I commit to:

- Working to the best of my ability at all times so that I excel in all I do;
- Attending school every day, on time, wearing full uniform correctly and with the necessary equipment;
- Abiding by the school code of conduct and treating all others and the school environment with consideration and respect;
- Taking an active part in the life of the school and making the most of enrichment activities;
- Attending the extended school day (3.30pm – 5.00pm) where either I am in the bottom 25% of my year group for average ATL grades or my teachers feel that I am not on track to reach my target grade;
- Agreeing not to post images or video footage of either Blenheim staff, students, images of the school or the school name on any internet site without prior written consent from the Headteacher.
- Wearing school uniform correctly and with pride and adhering to appearance regulations, on the way to and from school;
- Behaving considerately towards others in the local community;
- Sharing and celebrating my own success and the success of others in our community.
